

What? How? Why?

- Non-Profit Media: <https://shop.wikileaks.org/donate>
- Secure and anonymous way for sources to leak information
- Publish original source material alongside our news stories
- Defence of freedom of speech
- Anonymous electronic drop box
- <http://wikileaks.openathropology.org/submissions.html>
- In person and via postal drops
- Investigative journalism for verification

Julian Assange

- August 2010.
- Miss A, had allowed Assange to stay at her flat while she was away. When Miss A returned she accused Assange of aggressively pursuing sex with her on 13 August, to which she reluctantly agreed. She also accused Assange of not properly using a condom. Assange denies these accusations. Miss A put on a party for Assange the following day and continued to let him stay in her flat.
- Miss W, took Assange to her flat and had consensual sex with him using a condom. However Miss W accused Assange of having unprotected sex with her the next day, starting when she was half asleep. Assange again denies these accusations.

Banking Blockade

- Bank of America, VISA, MasterCard, PayPal, Western Union.
- destroyed 95% of the revenue.
- Cablegate: US-based, political attack that included vitriol, including assassination calls against Wikileaks staff.
- 10 days within the launch of Cablegate.
- no lawful grounds to add Wikileaks to a US financial blockade

Guantanamo Bay operating procedures

- Standard Operating Procedures for Camp Delta
- released on Wikileaks in 2007
- Human rights violations.
- prisoners could be denied access to the Red Cross.
- special rewards: a roll of toilet paper.

Iraq War Logs

- Release Date: 22nd October 2010
- 391,832 reports ('The Iraq War Logs') 1st January 2004 to 31st December 2009
- 'SIGACT': Significant Action in the war
- detail events as seen and heard by the US military troops on the ground in Iraq.
- 109,032 deaths in Iraq, comprised of 66,081 'civilians'; 23,984 'enemy'
- 31 civilians dying every day during the six year period.

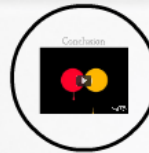

What? How? Why?

- Non-Profit Media. <https://donate.wikileaks.org/donate>
- Secure and anonymous way for sources to leak information
- Publish original source material alongside our news stories
- Defence of freedom of speech
- Anonymous electronic drop box.
- <http://wikileaks.org/openathropology.org/Submissions.html>
- In person and via postak drops
- Investigative journalism for verification

Julian Assange

- August 2010.
- Miss A. had allowed Assange to stay at her flat while she was away when Miss A returned she accused Assange of aggressively pursuing sex with her on 13 August, to which she reluctantly agreed. She also accused Assange of not properly using a condom. Assange denies these accusations. Miss A put on a party for Assange the following day and continued to let him stay in her flat.
- Miss W. took Assange to her flat and had consensual sex with him using a condom. However Miss W accused Assange of having unprotected sex with her the next day, starting when she was half asleep. Assange again denies these accusations.

Banking Blockade

- Bank of America, VISA, MasterCard, PayPal, Western Union.
- destroyed 95% of the revenue.
- Cablegate: US-based, political attack that included vitriol, including assassination calls against Wikileaks staff.
- 10 days within the launch of Cablegate.
- no lawful grounds to add Wikileaks to a US financial blockade

Guantanamo Bay operating procedures

- Standard Operating Procedures for Camp Delta
- released on Wikileaks in 2007
- Human rights violations.
- prisoners could be denied access to the Red Cross.
- special rewards: a roll of toilet paper.

Iraq War Logs

- Release Date: 22nd October 2010
- 391,832 reports ('The Iraq War Logs') 1st January 2004 to 31st December 2009
- 'SIGACT': Significant Action in the war
- detail events as seen and heard by the US military troops on the ground in Iraq.
- 109,037 deaths in Iraq, comprised of 66,081 civilians; 23,984 'enemy'
- 31 civilians dying every day during the six year period.

wikileaks

Information wants to be free.

WikiLeaks

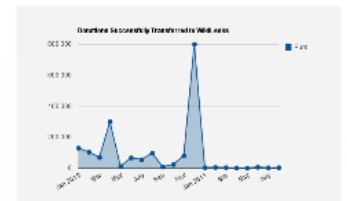

ny?

What? How? Why?

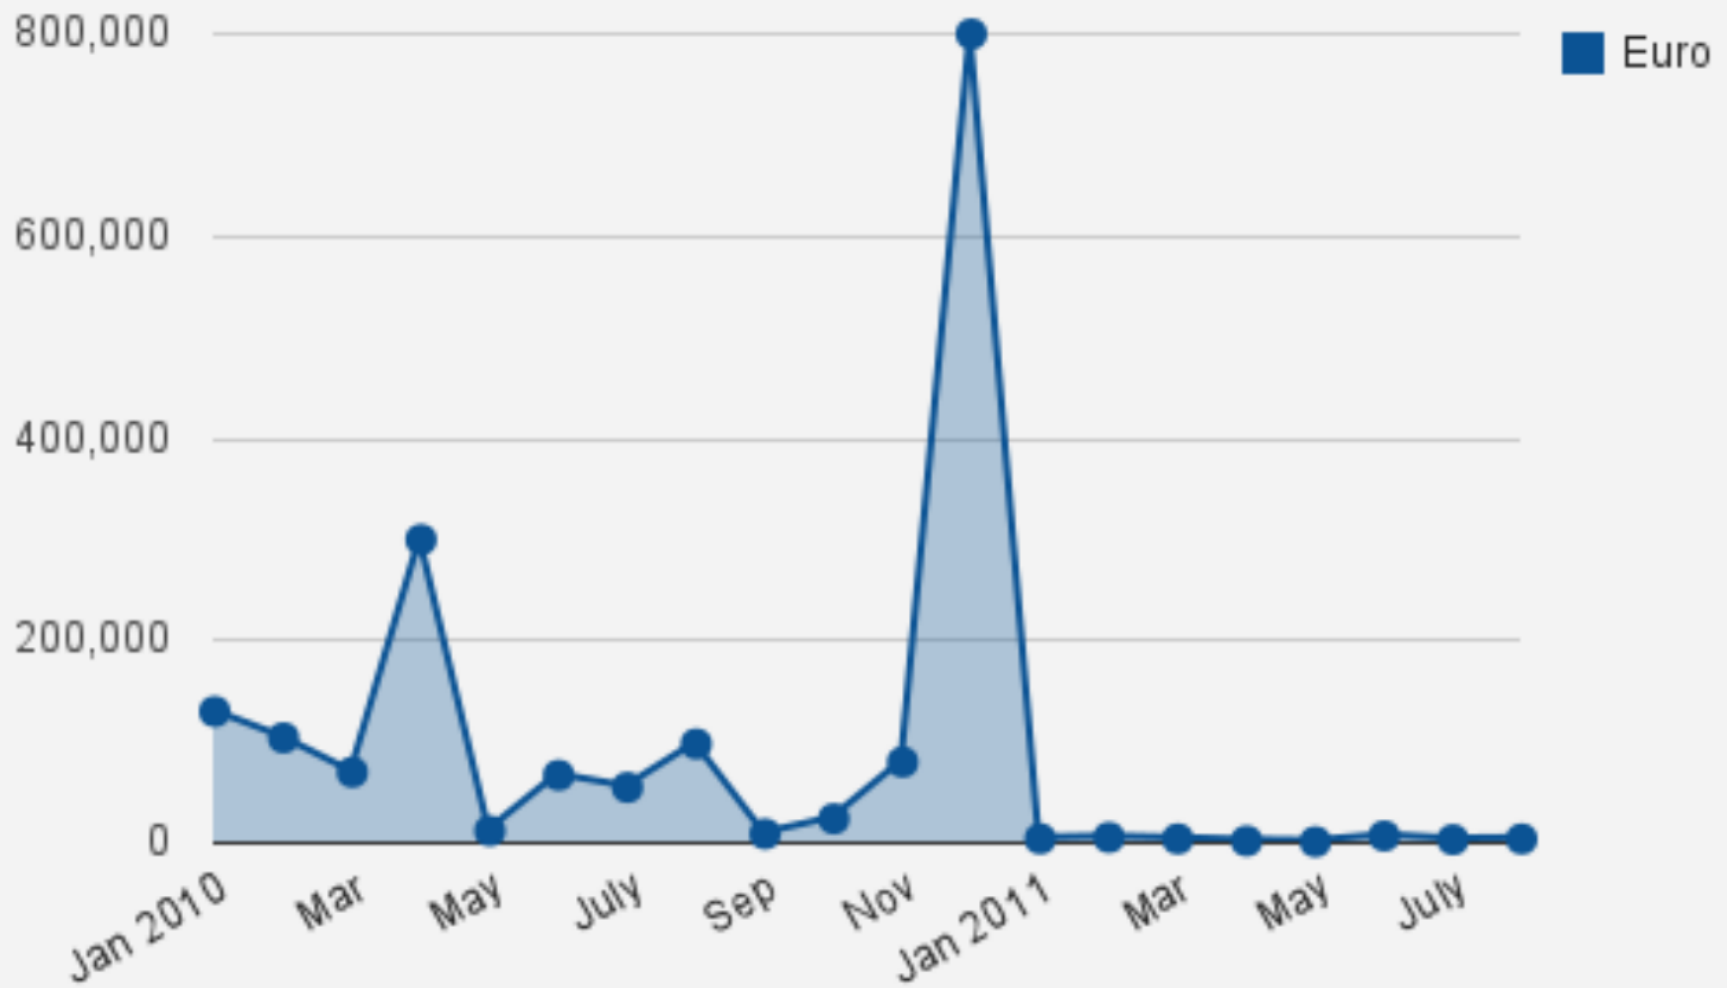

- Non-Profit Media. <https://shop.wikileaks.org/donate>
- Secure and anonymous way for sources to leak information
- Publish original source material alongside our news stories
- Defence of freedom of speech
- Anonymous electronic drop box.
- <http://wikileaks.openanthropology.org/Submissions.html>
- In person and via postal drops
- Investigative journalism for verification

Banking Blockade

- Bank of America, VISA, MasterCard, PayPal, Western Union.
- destroyed 95% of the revenue.
- Cablegate: US-based, political attack that included vitriol, including assassination calls against WikiLeaks staff.
- 10 days within the launch of Cablegate.
- no lawful grounds to add WikiLeaks to a US financial blockade

Donations Successfully Transferred to WikiLeaks

Iraq War Logs

- Release Date: 22nd October 2010
- 391,832 reports ('The Iraq War Logs') 1st January 2004 to 31st December 2009
- 'SIGACT' : Significant Action in the war
- detail events as seen and heard by the US military troops on the ground in Iraq.
- 109,032 deaths in Iraq, comprised of 66,081 'civilians'; 23,984 'enemy'
- 31 civilians dying every day during the six year period.

YouTube

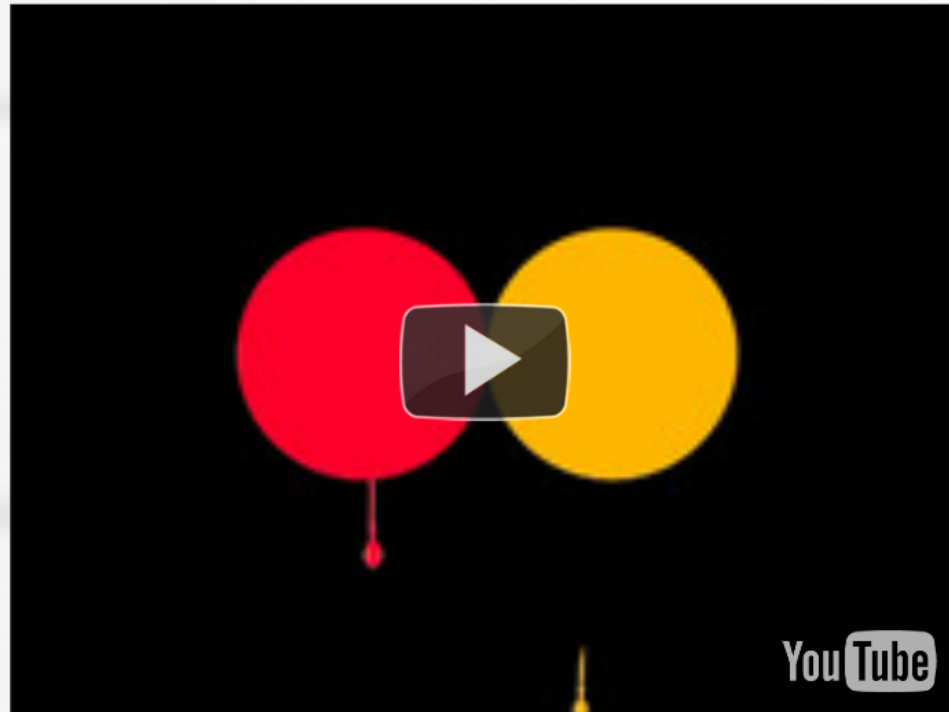

Guantanamo Bay operating procedures

- Standard Operating Procedures for Camp Delta
- released on Wikileaks in 2007
- Human rights violations.
- prisoners could be denied access to the Red Cross.
- special rewards: a roll of toilet paper.

Julian Assange

- August 2010.
- Miss A, had allowed Assange to stay at her flat while she was away. When Miss A returned she accused Assange of aggressively pursuing sex with her on 13 August, to which she reluctantly agreed. She also accused Assange of not properly using a condom. Assange denies these accusations. Miss A put on a party for Assange the following day and continued to let him stay in her flat.
- Miss W, took Assange to her flat and had consensual sex with him using a condom. However Miss W accused Assange of having unprotected sex with her the next day, starting when she was half asleep. Assange again denies these accusation

Conclusion

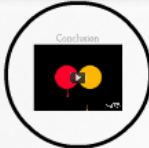

What? How? Why?

- Non-Profit Media. <https://donate.wikileaks.org/donate>
- Secure and anonymous way for sources to leak information
- Publish original source material alongside our news stories
- Defence of freedom of speech
- Anonymous electronic drop box.
- <http://wikileaks.org/openathropology.org/submissions.html>
- In person and via postak drops
- Investigative journalism for verification

Julian Assange

- August 2010.
- Miss A. had allowed Assange to stay at her flat while she was away when Miss A returned she accused Assange of aggressively pursuing sex with her on 13 August, to which she reluctantly agreed. She also accused Assange of not properly using a condom. Assange denies these accusations. Miss A put on a party for Assange the following day and continued to let him stay in her flat.
- Miss W. took Assange to her flat and had consensual sex with him using a condom. However Miss W accused Assange of having unprotected sex with her the next day, starting when she was half asleep. Assange again denies these accusations.

Banking Blockade

- Bank of America, VISA, MasterCard, PayPal, Western Union.
- destroyed 95% of the revenue.
- Cablegate: US-based, political attack that included vitriol, including assassination calls against Wikileaks staff.
- 10 days within the launch of Cablegate.
- no lawful grounds to add Wikileaks to a US financial blockade

Guantanamo Bay operating procedures

- Standard Operating Procedures for Camp Delta
- released on Wikileaks in 2007
- Human rights violations.
- prisoners could be denied access to the Red Cross.
- special rewards: a roll of toilet paper.

Iraq War Logs

- Release Date: 22nd October 2010
- 391,832 reports ('The Iraq War Logs') 1st January 2004 to 31st December 2009
- 'SIGACT': Significant Action in the war
- detail events as seen and heard by the US military troops on the ground in Iraq.
- 109,037 deaths in Iraq, comprised of 66,081 civilians; 23,984 'enemy'
- 31 civilians dying every day during the six year period.

