2) Please include with this application form a non-refundable check or money order made payable to UBC Department of Computer Science. This is a non-refundable fee equivalent to one credit of tuition. Please see the current fee schedule in the UBC Calendar.

Signature: ________________________________  Date: ________________

Please submit this form and payment to the Computer Science Department Office, Room 201, ICCS Building, 2366 Main Mall.
Note:

1) A grade of at least 72% is required on the exam to successfully challenge the course.

2) The application fee is non-refundable in the event that you do not successfully challenge the course.

3) If you obtain a grade of at least 72% on the exam, you have the option of having that grade recorded on your transcript as a credit in CPSC 110. The letters CH will appear on your transcript alongside the grade to indicate that you challenged the course.

4) Students who already have a grade in CPSC 110 or a "W" standing in the course are not eligible to write the CPSC 110 Challenge Exam.

5) Students may not attempt the CPSC 110 Challenge Exam more than once. Students who fail the Challenge Exam must register in the course if they wish to obtain credit for CPSC 110.
