

HOROSCOPES & HUMOUR

THE "LIFE ACCORDING TO SEINFELD" ISSUE

By Dave Tompkins

ARIES (March 21 – April 19)

This month will be about nothing. There will be some colorful characters, some funny jokes, a few commercials, but really it's about nothing.

TAURUS (April 20 – May 20)

Don't read any Ziggy cartoons, because you might accidentally plagiarize one of them while designing your cartoon for the New Yorker.

GEMINI (May 21 – June 21)

If you buy a twix® bar from a vending machine and it doesn't fall, don't leave it unattended, because someone else will come by and eat it.

CANCER (June 22 – July 22)

This month some crazy stuff is going to happen. It will start like any other month, then yada, yada yada... and then back to normal.

LEO (July 23 – Aug. 22)

You're going to forget the name of the person you're sleeping with. Hint 1: It rhymes with a female anatomy part. Hint 2: It's not Mulva.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 – Sep. 22)

This month you're going to have a contest with your friends to see who can go the longest without masturbating. You'll lose big time.

LIBRA (Sep. 23 – Oct. 23)

Don't just nod and agree to whatever Kramer's low-talking girlfriend says, because you might have to wear a puffy shirt on the Tonight Show.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 – Nov. 21)

This month, you must try to do everything the opposite of the way you normally do things. It's the only way you're going to be a "winner".

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 – Dec. 21)

This month you'll have lots of interesting house guests and witty banter after you put the old Merv Griffin set in your apartment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 – Jan. 19)

Someone is going to get confused, mix up your sexual orientation, and it's going to be a mess. Not that there's anything wrong with that.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 – Feb. 18)

While lost in a parking garage you'll feel an overwhelming need to relieve yourself, but please resist the urge to urinate in public.

PISCES (Feb. 19 – March 20)

This month, try not to pretend you're a marine biologist, but if you insist, please make sure you save any beached whales you encounter.
